

Formalin fixed specimen: Ensure sample is fully immersed. Label, double bag, and ship in a crush-proof container.
Fresh specimen: Contact Pathology before shipping. Wrap tissue in saline-soaked gauze, label, double bag and ship with a cooling pack for priority overnight arrival. Include a completed copy of the Sample Submission Form

UC Davis Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital – Anatomic Pathology

1 Garrod Drive, Building VM3A, Rm 1346, Davis, CA 95616-5270
 (530) 752-1368; fax: (530) 752-7242; email: dermvets@ucdavis.edu
http://www.vetmed.ucdavis.edu/vmth/lab_services/anatomic_pathology/consulting/dermpath.cfm

Dr. Verena K. Affolter; DVM, PhD Diplomate ECVP

Dr. Catherine A. Outerbridge; DVM, MVSc, Diplomate ACVIM and ACVD

Laboratory Testing Requested

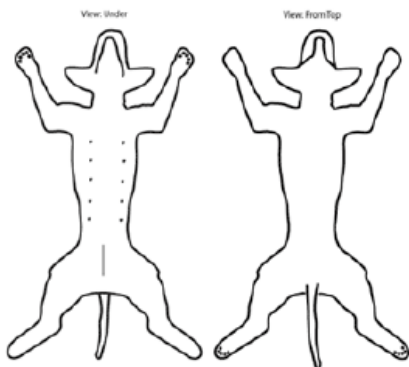

Full Histology Discription

Clinical Dermatology Consult (additional charge)

Clinical Presentation

Skin Lesions

Click to add images

- | | | |
|----------------|----------|--------------|
| Scales | Alopecia | Crusts |
| Erosion | Ulcers | Fissures |
| Crusts | Whealas | Erythema |
| Bullae | Vesicles | Macules |
| Nodules | Mass | Collarrettes |
| Lichenificaion | Papules | Pustules |
| Depigmentation | | |