

Treatment Room

The treatment room is to facilitate efficient and effective treatment for patients requiring essential medical procedures, including bandage changes, external fixator adjustments, and wound care.